

CECIDOLOGY

Vol. 36, No 1

Spring 2021

CONTENTS

Editorial .....	1
Dasineura praticola (Diptera: Cecidomyiidae), a gall midge on Silene flos-cuculi (Caryophyllaceae) from Suffolk, England with a brief review of its status and European distribution Jerry Bowdrey .....	2
New hosts for Aceria cerrea (Nalepa) in the UK? Sam J. Buckton .....	7
Recent advances in understanding the processes of gall induction and development by cynipids Chris Leach .....	10
Current Literature 2021 (1) Jerry Bowdrey .....	17
Book review: How to Begin the Study of Plant Galls by Stephen Rutherford Peter Shirley .....	21
Notes on Galium flower galls from observations in York Sam J. Buckton .....	23
Gall of the midge Janetia cerris (Kollar, 1850) – first findings on UK Quercus cerris Tommy Root .....	29
Field meetings 2021 Keith Palmer .....	33
Keep an eye on your pear trees Michael Chinery .....	36
Observations on galls on Barren Brome, Anisantha sterilis (L.) caused by a gall midge Mayetiola sp. Robert Maidstone .....	39
A request for oak, rose and herb gall wasps for the Darwin Tree of Life project (Letter to the Editor) Graham Stone .....	43
Galls of groups other than plants Part 1: Introduction, bacteria &amp; fungi Brian Spooner .....	45
Review of the Society's constitution with proposals for amendment Brian Spooner .....	51
Call for participation in running BPGS .....	57